This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

MEMORIAL RECORD.

DROPS of water fill the ocean; particles of sand make up the mountain.

So the great contest—largest, fiercest, bloodiest, of the century—by which the Union of the United States was saved from division, and liberty and free institutions were newly assured to this land and the world, was carried on and made successful by the individual patriotism of American citizens of the North. One by one the lovers of their country joined the Union army till their number was two million, and their strength, employed as it was in the interest of justice, righteousness and liberty, irresistible.

Our own town, containing a population of about one thousand, contributed its proprortion of voluntary offerings on the national altar. Though far removed from the scenes of conflict, and employed in the most quiet of vocations—the industrious cultivation of a fertile soil—yet she felt the vigorous pulsations of the large patriotic heart of the country. The bugle call of war, sounded, as she imagined, by the Goddess of Liberty, stirred the blood of her people, especially her young men, and they gathered around the national standards and remained with them till they were carried in triumph over all the land. Our contribution of men and means, necessarily small was by no means insignificant, and the record thereof we will preserve, and herewith transmit to our children.

The record of each soldier is necessarily brief: a few dates and all is told. But let it be remembered that these dates cover a long experience of privation, suffering and danger. That days and weeks and months were consumed in exposure to heat or cold, or storm; in hunger, or thirst, or hard fare; in dull and heavy life in camp, in laborious and painful marches, in lonesome, weary watchings at guard stations and picket posts; in perils of ball and shell, in the deadly field of strife and carnage; in sufferings from wounds and sickness that we sadly remember too often proved fatal.

These cannot be revealed, but they must not be forgotten, if we would understand at all the history of our soldier friends during their stay in the army.

"Do we count the sick man's weary bed,
His days and nights of pain—
The ghastly spectres that round him flit,
While the fever burns his brain?

Have we watched his feeble, wasted form,
When the frenzied spell had passed—
When his life as in a balance hung,
And each hour might be his last?
Who knows of the weary, weary march
Through the dust and burning heat,
When a step is an age of agony,
To blistered and bleeding feet?

Who thinks of the wintry bivouac,
'Twixt the frozen earth and sky—
The sentry's walk, 'mid rain and blast,
While the long, long hours go by—
Of the night-long watch on the picket line,
Where a fire must never burn,
Where you hear the tread of the deadly foe,
And death is at every turn?"

LUTHER AINSWORTH,

He was wounded by a shell, in the left arm, at the battle of Gettysburgh, July 3d, 1863, and was discharged the 21st of the same month, at the expiration of his term of service. Bounty from Government, $25.

WILLIAM W. McALLISTER,

Aged 20, enlisted Aug. 8th, 1864, in the Third Vermont Light Artillery, and was mustered in the day following. He was on detached service at Rutland, Vt., and Fairhaven, Ct., for six months, and the remainder of the time was at the front near Petersburg, Va. He was discharged June 15th, 1865. Bounty, $500.

HARLEN G. NEWCOMB,

Aged 24, enlisted Aug. 19th, 1862, in Company K, One Hundred and Forty-Fifth New York Volunteers, and was mustered in the 22d of the next month, at camp on Staten Island. During the fall of the next year, while in hospital, was detailed as nurse. In March, 1864, was transferred to Company I, One Hundred and Seventh New York Volunteers, and next month joined the company at Shelbyville, Tenn. Detailed at Division Head Quarters, September, 1864, after the surrender of Atlanta. He rejoined his company again May 23d, 1865, and was discharged June 19th following. Bounty, $175, from Government, State and town.

DANIEL RUSS,

Aged 29, enlisted June 23d, 1862, in Company I, Ninth Regiment Vermont Volunteers, and was mustered in July 9th. He was taken prisoner and paroled, at the surrender of Harper's Ferry, Sept. 15th, 1862. He was detailed as Clerk in Dispensary, April 15th, 1863; was in hospital from September, 1863, till Jan. 12th, 1864, when he rejoined his company. GEORGE E. SPAULDING,

Brother of the above, and of Solon S. and Lewis M., mentioned before, enlisted at the age of 18, in Company G, Tenth New York Volunteers, for Albany, and served from April till August, 1865. Bounty $600, from town.

CHARLES D. TEWKSBURY,

Aged 23, enlisted September 17th, 1861, in Company B, Fifty-second Illinois, Volunteer Infantry, and was mustered in at Geneva, Ill., October 25th, 1861, as Corporal; was promoted Sergeant May 16th, 1862; reënlisted as veteran December 25th, 1863; was promoted First Sergeant April 1864; was mustered out after the close of the war, July 6th, 1865, at Louisville, Ky., receiving a Lieutenant's commission. He received $502 bounty from the Government, and $1 from Bureau County, Ill. He was wounded at the battle of Shiloh in the head. He was in hospital only long enough to have his wound dressed during his four years' service. He traveled with his Regiment over 6000 miles, 1600 of which he marched on foot. After that, started off under Gen. Sherman, and marched round to Savannah, and up to Washington.

ISAAC NORTON TEWKSBURY,

An uncle of the above named, a native of Waitsfield, and more than twenty years a resident of the town, served in the army in a Michigan Regiment, and was killed in the battle of Pittsburg Landing, at the age of fifty-two years.

Other persons, natives of Waitsfield, have doubtless served in the army, but the compiler has failed to learn the facts in regard to them.

Below are the names of the soldiers, arranged in the order of enlistment, together with their age, and bounty of each.

The following persons were drafted and paid commutation: Charles E. Bigelow, Jr., James P. Carpenter, Carlos E. Jones, Lewis R. Joslin, Allen G. Matthews, Henry F. Matthews, Alfred D. Steele, Franklin B. Thomas.

The commutation money amounted to $2,400.

Besides these contributions of men and money, there were other gifts. A Society was formed, auxiliary to that of the Christian Commission, which was instrumental in collecting and forwarding several boxes of Hospital supplies prepared by the ladies of the town. The value of these is not known, but, together with the money also sent at different times through the same agency, to the sick and wounded soldiers, amounted, doubtless, to several hundred dollars.

Number killed in action, - - - - - -	8

Several others died after their discharge, from diseases contracted in the service. Several of the deceased soldiers lie buried in unknown graves.

"The kings of old have shrine and tomb
In many a minster's haughty gloom;
And green along the ocean side,
The mounds arise where heroes died;
But shew me, on thy flowery breast,
Earth, where thy nameless martyrs rest!

The thousands that, unheered by praise,
Have made an offering of their days;
For Truth, for Heaven, for Freedom's sake,
Resigned the bitter cup to take,
And silently, in fearless faith,
Bowing their noble souls to death."
